Special Reports

A Proud Legacy of Quality Assurance in the Preparation of Technical Professionals: ABET 75th Anniversary Retrospective, Edited by John W. Prados, Ph.D., P.E. (2007)

This is the first publication of its kind: A thoughtful investigation of quality assurance in U.S. postsecondary technical education. Weaving annotated prose with original documents and reflections from some of ABET's most prolific volunteers, the 75th Anniversary Retrospective tells an interesting tale of the people, places, and paradigms that have shaped the organization and its significant role in applied science, computing, engineering, and technology education. A great gift for educators and ABET volunteers, and a worthwhile addition to the campus library. 350 pages, full color, hardcover with illustrated dust jacket.
